Indispensable for all motor sport fans with demands on high quality tools: The Red Bull Racing Compact Tool with 6 stainless steel screwdriving bits in the handle - made by Wera. The set allows both manual screwdriving operations as well as power tool applications. The bayonet blade that can be lowered into the handle with quick-release chuck enables screwdriving even in very confined working environments. Additionally, the blade can be removed and inserted in a cordless driver. KrSaftform screwdriver handle: hard gripping zones for high working speeds, softer zones for high torque transfer. In a practical belt pouch in the Red Bull Racing design. The reverse of the box has a nonwoven surface and it also comes with a Velcro strip to affix the box to any surface.
